

Morgan County Sheriff's Rodeo Queen Pageant

Rules and Information

- You do not have to be a resident of Morgan County or the State of Alabama.
- You must be considerate of others and act with poise and lady-like behavior in any situation or circumstance.
- Parents, family members, sponsors, coaches, committees and friends are welcome and encouraged to attend events but we ask that you do not have any contact with them at all during the judging sessions and at the rodeo. Anyone who fails to comply will be dismissed from participating in the pageant and/or pageant activities.
- You are required to wear western attire (hat, boots, jeans, belt, etc...) at all events. Dress tops are nice but not mandatory. You are not expected to spend lots of money on clothing. The goal is to have fun, learn and to promote rodeo and its sponsors.
- You will be judged on personality, appearance and poise, horsemanship (if applicable), impromptu questions (if applicable), and modeling (if applicable) and speech (if applicable).
- You will be disqualified if you attempt to influence or trouble any of the judges.
- You will be disqualified if any of your family members attempts to influence or trouble any of the judges.
- You will be disqualified if you, family members, sponsors, coaches, committees and/or friends cause a disturbance with acts of misconduct.
- You will be disqualified if you display any conduct detrimental to the title of Miss Morgan County Sheriff's Rodeo Queen.

- At the conclusion of the pageant, you will be mailed a copy of your score sheets. They will be kept on file for a period of one month.
- You shall have no visible body piercings such as: eyebrow studs, nose rings, lip piercings, tongue studs, excessive earrings/studs. Remember, all eyes are on you. The Sheriff or Queen Pageant Committee reserves the right to decide if a piercing(s) is inappropriate.
- Contestants MUST BE present at the coronation. In the event a division winner/alternate(s) are not present at coronation, the title(s) shall be forfeited and the title will be passed to the next alternate.
NO EXCEPTIONS!!!!
- Social media shall always be appropriate. All language, photographs, etc... shall be of excellent moral standards... absolutely no photographs with tattoos and any visible body piercings, other than earrings. The Sheriff or Queen Pageant Committee reserves the right to decide if a social status or post is inappropriate.
- Absolutely no one other than contestants, committee members or judges shall be allowed in the arena at any time during the day of the pageant judging. This includes before, during, or after horsemanship judging!
- Contestants must have their contestant number visible at all public events.
- Contestants shall be checked-in for the rodeo NO LATER THAN 6:30 at the registration table in the front lobby. The registration table will be removed after 6:30.
- Contestants in the Miss Morgan County Sheriff's Rodeo Queen Division (Ages 18-26) shall attend all rodeo activities including the MCSR Parade, MSCR Street Dance & MCS Special Needs Rodeo. All other divisions are highly encouraged to attend these events as well.
